PONTE VEDRA BEACH

One of St. Johns County's most prestigious addresses, Ponte Vedra Beach, is where you'll find everything ranging from 12,000 square foot oceanfront palaces to apartment living, depending on your lifestyle and price range. The area offers excellent public schools, great shopping and a lifestyle that is uniquely Ponte Vedra.

Each spring, Ponte Vedra Beach is thrust onto the national scene with broadcasts of The Players Championship, which is staged at the TPC Sawgrass. Ponte Vedra Beach is headquarters of both the ATP Tour and the PGA Tour, entitles having a significant economic impact on the local economy.

One of the hidden gems of Ponte Vedra Beach is Guana River State Park, a 2,600-acre preserve offering hiking and fishing and beachfront recreation. Guana River park includes 17 significant historic or prehistoric cultural sites, including Wright's Landing which is believed to be the location of the 17th century Spanish mission, the Nativity of our Lady of Tolomato. The site contains a prehistoric earthen burial mound and has been nominated as a National Register site. The Guana River State Park land was purchased using Conservation and Recreational Lands and Save Our Coast funds by the State of Florida in 1984.

Travel down A1A toward St. Augustine past Guana and you'll find a number of condos at Serenata Beach that have been developed in the past five years, together with the Serenata Beach Club.
