PRUDENTIAL NETWORK REALTY WRAPS UP SUCCESSFUL BLANKET DRIVE AND OPEN HOUSE IN ARLINGTON

JACKSONVILLE, Florida – A recent Prudential Network Realty open house event raised more than just an awareness of available homes in Jacksonville’s Arlington neighborhood. The extravaganza also gathered scores of blankets for area charitable organizations and generated more public interest in the company’s annual Take it To the House competition.

“We were very pleased with the results of our “Blankets Arlington” open house event – it was a best case scenario situation that met the needs of those less fortunate in our community, while showcasing real estate opportunities throughout Arlington.” said Christy Budnick, executive vice president of Prudential Network Realty.

The Arlington Open House Extravaganza and Blanket Drive took place at more than a dozen Arlington homes during two weekends. Visitors were able to tour the available homes and donate blankets. The blanket drive benefitted the I.M. Sulzbacher Center, the City Rescue Mission and Hubbard House. Blanket donors received entries into the company’s exciting Take it to the House competition, an annual contest that enters participants in the chance to win $50,000 toward the purchase of a home.
